

Randall "Randy" Pahr

March 23, 1970 - November 17, 2022

Randall R. "Randy" Pahr, was the cherished son of John and Terry Pahr, loving brother of Gene, Cindy (Joe) Stachovic, John (Marilyn), Melanie (Tony Battaglia) O'Meara, fond uncle to John, Nicole, Amanda, Joseph (Kristen), Douglas, Brian (Joy), Kristin (Andy) Bozeman, Michelle (Torsten) Partsch, Sarah Pahr, Ben (Kristi), Michael (Nick), Mike (April) O'Meara, and Mark O'Meara, great-uncle and cousin to many, and friend to countless.

Randy was a diehard Clemson Tiger fan. He loved the orange, white and purple! He was able to witness the last couple championships under Coach Dabo. Additionally, he was an avid Chicago White Sox and Blackhawks fan. His passion for cooking transcended throughout his family, especially during Thanksgiving. He was known for preparing and deep frying the family turkey; something that became a staple during the holidays. Also, he made Swedish meatballs and pineapple casserole, which were some family favorites that will surely be passed on. Randy enjoyed casting his line when fishing and camping with family and friends. Lastly, Randy loved the casino. He recently traveled to Las Vegas, old Sin City. He will be sorely missed and remembered by his family and friends.
